Remember-Wise Men Still Seek Him!

"Come Let Us Adore Him" A Silent Christmas Presentation

Please no talking or loud movement. The purpose of this presentation is to feel the spirit in different ways. You will be reading, writing, listening, and watching.

READ John 14:6 "Jesus saith unto him, I am the way, the truth, and the life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me."

While watching the video "The Nativity", think about how Mary must have felt. Then, while listening to "Silent Night", record your thoughts about the Savior's birth. Video playing on entering: "Bring A Torch Jeanette Isabella"

READ Matthew 1:18-23

18 Now the birth of Jesus Christ was on this wise: When as his mother Mary was espoused to Joseph, before they came together, she was found with child of the Holy Ghost. 19 Then Joseph her husband, being a just man, and not willing to make her a publick example, was minded to put her away privily.

20 But while he thought on these things, behold, the angel of the Lord appeared unto him in a dream, saying, Joseph, thou son of David, fear not to take unto thee Mary thy wife: for that which is conceived in her is of the Holy Ghost. 21 And she shall bring forth a son, and thou shalt call his name JESUS: for he shall save his people from their sins. 22 Now all this was done, that it might be fulfilled which was spoken of the Lord by the prophet, saying, 23 Behold, a virgin shall be with child, and shall bring forth a son, and they shall call his name Emmanuel, which, being interpreted is, God with us.

READ Luke 2: 1~7

_1And it came to pass in those days, that there went out a decree from Cæsar Augustus, that all athe world should be <sup>b</sup>taxed. 2(And this ataxing was first made when Cyrenius was governor of Syria.)

3And all went to be taxed, every one into his own city. 4And Joseph also went up from Galilee, out of the city of Nazareth, into Judæa, unto the city of David, which is called <sup>a</sup>Bethlehem; (because he was of the house and lineage of David:) 5To be taxed with Mary his <sup>a</sup>espoused wife, being great with child.

6And so it was, that, while they were there, the days were accomplished that she should be delivered.

7And she brought forth her afirstborn son, and wrapped him in swaddling clothes, and laid him in a manger; because there was no room for them in the  $^{b}$ inn.

The Wise Men did not come the night of Jesus' birth as the shepherds did. They saw the star in the East and traveled far to see him. They arrived from Palestine in the East some time later, perhaps even months later. There is no account that tells us just how many Wise Men came to worship the Savior. There may have been three; there may have been seven; there may have been ten. But how many is not so important. What is important is that there were Wise Men who came to present gifts to the child, and, even today, that Wise Men still seek him.

READ Matthew 2: 1-11

1Now when Jesus was <sup>a</sup>born in Bethlehem of Judæa in the days of Herod the king, behold, there came wise men from the east to Jerusa-lem,

2Saying, <sup>a</sup>Where is he that is born <sup>b</sup>King of the Jews? for we have seen his <sup>c</sup>star in the east, and are come to <sup>d</sup>worship him....

8And he sent them to Bethlehem, and said, Go and search diligently for the young child; and when ye have found him, bring me word again, that I may come and worship him also.

9When they had heard the king, they departed; and, lo, the star, which they saw in the east, went before them, till it came and stood over where the young child was.

10When they saw the star, they rejoiced with exceeding great joy. 11 And when they were come into the house, they saw the young child with Mary his mother, and fell down, and worshipped him: and when they had opened their treasures, they presented unto him gifts; gold, and afrankincense, and myrrh.

READ Luke 2:15-20

_15And it came to pass, as the angels were gone away from them into heaven, the shepherds said one to another, Let us now go even unto Bethlehem, and see this thing which is come to pass, which the Lord hath made known unto us.

16And they came with <sup>a</sup>haste, and found Mary, and Joseph, and the babe lying in a manger.

17And when they had seen it, they made known abroad the saying which was told them concerning this child.

18And all they that heard it awondered at those things which were told them by the shepherds.

19But Mary kept all these things, and apondered them in her heart. 20And the shepherds returned, glorifying and praising God for all the things that they had heard and seen, as it was told unto them.

Shepherds were watching over their flocks that night. The flocks they tended were the sacrificial lambs that would be used in the Temple. And they were the ones to visit the Lamb of God that night.

Jesus Christ came into the world to give us the greatest gift: eternal life. While listening to this next song, think about His life, His gift, and His example. What does He mean to you? The "Lil' Drummer Boy" is a song about a little boy who had nothing to give the Savior at his birth, at least in the eyes of the world. But, he found a gift within himself that the Savior loved and saw as the best gift of all because it came from his heart.

Listen to the words of the song.

What gift can you give the Savior this Christmas?
